My Story

Erik is the only child of Henry Ellström, owner of Ellström Textiles. Following the death of his mother, Erik and his father moved to the U.S. Erik's father ensured that his son had the best of everything, from private tutors to the finest clothes and toys. As Erik grew, so did his social circle. Now in his early twenties, Erik is a known figure about town.

A year ago, Erik was contacted by a Mr. Lancing, representing a group of intellectuals calling themselves "the Seekers". Mr. Lancing said that the group were inviting a few handpicked individuals of the right standing to join the organization. Particularly, Mr. Lancing said the group was interested in utilizing Erik's knowledge of Latin. Erik jumped at the chance, as it seemed like a route to adventure, or at least a few japes. With a shake of hands, Mr. Lancing said he would be in touch soon.

Erik knows the group is more interested in his money than anything else, yet his excitement has been at fever pitch ever since the meeting. He awaits the call, certain that he soon will be on the adventure of a lifetime.
