My Story

In his youth, Robert studied at the Miskatonic University in Arkham. With his knack for writing, he worked at the student newspaper and dreamed that one day he would return to Sweden as a Nobel Prize-winning author. His dream was never to be realized. With rejections from publishers piling-up beside his typewriter, Robert found he was able to make ends meet by writing for newspapers and magazines. The more lurid and colorful the story, the more attention it received, and the better he was paid. It wasn't long before he began a productive relationship with Strange but True! magazine.

Nowadays, Robert works pretty much exclusively for Strange but True! He travels the forgotten parts of America, seeking out bizarre and tall tales for the magazine's readership. Known equally as a friend and a nuisance, Robert has built an extensive web of contacts that supply him with the very latest gossip and whispers.
